

AACE/ACE Scientific and Clinical Review of DKA and The Effects of SGLT2 Inhibitors

AACE will convene a conference of U.S. and international experts to examine the issue of diabetic ketoacidosis (DKA) among patients treated with SGLT2 inhibitors. AACE will conduct this meeting to provide answers to questions from its membership raised in response to recent case reports and publications on the subject. The AACE/ACE Scientific and Clinical Review of DKA and The Effects of SGLT2 Inhibitors is scheduled to take place October 24-25, 2015 at the Grand Hyatt DFW in Dallas, TX and will assemble top scientists, diabetes experts and relevant stakeholders in the diabetes care arena to examine available data and provide recommendations for prescribers and patients.
